KEMMERER REPORT PROPOSALS.

CHINA URGED TO ADOPT GOLD STANDARD.

EXPERTS WORK OUT SCHEME TO LAST DETAILS.

SILVER A HANDICAP.

Of special interest to Hongkong in view of the appointment of the Currency Committee which will investigate, among other things, the question of the stabilisation of the Hongkong dollar, the Report of the Kemmerer Commission of American financial experts, on China's currency, has just been issued for publication.

Headed by Mr. Edwin Walter Kemmerer, a world-famous economist and financial expert, the Commission urges the early introduction of a gold standard in China, and makes special recommendations regarding its manner of introduction without unduly disturbing the existing relations of trade.

The Report is a lengthy document running into 206 pages, and it was presented to Mr. T. V. Soong in November last. It has been published by the National Government without comment.

A new coin is suggested, to be called a "sun," and its basis will be gold of a weight making it worth 40 cents of the U.S. Dollar, and 1/7.72 in sterling.

"SUN" SUGGESTED AS NEW COIN.

Shanghai, Mar. 29. The Report of the Kemmerer Commission as submitted in November last to His Excellency, Mr. T. V. Soong, Minister of Finance, has just been published.

The Commission spent the whole of 1929 in China investigating financial conditions.

The Report, after laying down a Project of Law for the gradual introduction of a gold currency system, gives an historical sketch and report on the present conditions of currency, followed by a scheme for its reform.

Important Appendices.

It also contains an explanation at some length, of specific provisions of the gold-standard project, with relevant appendices concerning exchange rates, silver and the circulation of coins and paper-money throughout the country.

Dealing with the proposed gold standard, the report says: "Currency reform, which is urgently needed in China, should involve two things: the replacement of the present confused currencies by a uniform and nationwide currency system, and the introduction of the gold standard."

The chaotic condition of China's currency is a serious handicap to trade and to the development and prosperity of the country.

China is the only important country to-day upon the silver standard.

Silver a Handicap.

The silver standard is a great handicap to China, particularly in the disturbing effect it has upon the country's foreign trade, and in the difficulties it creates in the management of the Government's finances, since government receipts are almost wholly in terms of silver, while a large part of the payments are fixed in terms of gold.

The report provides for the gradual introduction of a qualified form of the gold-exchange standard, and arranges for the permanent retirement from circulation of the various monies now in use, thus giving China a national and uniform gold currency system.

New Coin Suggested.

The new gold currency unit, for which the name "sun" has been suggested, is to contain 60, 1366 centigrams of pure gold and, therefore, to have a value equivalent to 40 cents in United States currency ($2.50—£1.00), to 1/7.7265d. sterling, and to 0.8025 Japanese gold yen.

This unit was selected largely because it is of practically the same value, in terms of gold, as the silver dollars now current in most parts of China. The shift from the present silver unit to a gold unit of approximately the same value should involve little if any disturbance to prices, wages and the re-

EMPLOYMENT AT DOCK CO.

INCREASE NOT QUITE UP TO HOPES.

BUILDING OF MARINE MOTORS CONTEMPLATED.

BIG STOCK TURN-OVER.

The advent of motor ship-building in Hongkong has not had quite the expected effect in the employment of the various departments of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, Ltd., stated the Hon. Mr. B. D. F. Beith, when presiding at the annual meeting of the Company, at Queen's Buildings this morning. He added that the advisability of building marine motors themselves would have to be considered in the future.

Shareholders were assured that during the lean years the Company is "experiencing, all efforts are being made to study economy in every possible way consistent with efficiency and reasonable progress."

Chairman's Speech.

The Chairman said: "Gentlemen, the reports and accounts for the year 1929 having been in your possession for the past two weeks, I will, with your permission, follow the usual procedure and take them as read."

The gross profit, you will observe, is about $280,000 better than the previous year, which, while regretting we cannot recommend the payment of a dividend, keeping in view present conditions in shipping and shipbuilding the world over, I trust, shareholders will consider reasonably satisfactory.

Turning to the accounts, you will notice interest charges are practically the same as the previous year and come to the very considerable sum of nearly $418,000.

Stock in hand amounts to $2,046,139.33 as against $1,914,546.88 at the end of 1928. It is interesting to note that even in a comparatively quiet year such as we have had, the general stock turned over was about 60% of the total, which is sufficient evidence of its quality and market value.

Widening of Dock.

The indebtedness to our bankers is slightly less. Additions to plant come to about $227,000, which is mostly the amount spent in widening our No. 1 Dock to which I referred last year. This work, I am pleased to tell you, is making good progress and should be completed well before the end of this year.

Depreciation amounts to over $148,000, which is considered ample. Your buildings and plant are in excellent order and the upkeep of same has been paid for out of revenue.

No bad debts were incurred during the year while the outstanding at 31st December have since practically all been collected. The remaining unpaid accounts are good.

During the year our establishments were only reasonably well employed.

New Tonnage.

A number of new ships, all small in tonnage, were constructed, but the advent of motor shipbuilding in Hongkong of which we constructed several with imported motors, did not keep some of our departments as well employed as they should be. The advisability of building marine motors ourselves will have to be considered in the future.

Docking and repair work was fair, but with the exception of one or two large jobs nothing very much out of our ordinary routine offered itself or was obtainable.

Studying Economy.

I can assure shareholders that during these lean years we are passing through, all efforts are being made to study economy in every possible way consistent with efficiency and reasonable progress.

I would like to thank our staff, both European and Chinese, for their loyal service during the past year.

I do not think there is anything more calling for comment and I now beg to propose the adoption of the following resolution:

THE TRUTH ABOUT GUJARAT

GANDHI'S REPORTED SUCCESS EXAGGERATED.

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT.

Bombay, Mar. 30. The Government of India has issued a communiqué in reference to the exaggerated reports of large scale resignations by public officials in Gujarat.

The Government states definitely that the reported big scale of resignations of village officers resulting from Gandhi's civil disobedience campaign in the Gujarat area, are exaggerated.

Only one taluk (village accountant) and seventy-four taluk (village headmen and revenue collectors) have resigned, and many of these have since sought revocation of their resignations.

Others despite their alleged resignations, are still carrying on their duties.

What is even more important is that most of the resignations have not been given voluntarily, but have been obtained by local intimidation, such as the refusal of water, notices of eviction from their houses, and other similar inducements.—Reuter.

CREDITORS TO ASSIST MADAME HANAU.

PROVIDING BIG SHARE OF BAIL FUND.

London, Mar. 30. Madame Hanau, who caused a sensation by escaping from a hospital and returning to prison after hunger striking for a long period, has been provisionally released on bail of 800,000 francs.

She protested against the amount of bail which, she declares, prevents her release. She says she has given up all her property to her creditors and had nothing left.

She has, however, abandoned her hunger strike.

Later. Madame Hanau's friends are likely to furnish half a million francs towards her bail figure, and her Gazette de France creditors have undertaken to provide the balance.—Reuter.

DIPLOMATS IN PANIC ON MOTORBOAT.

NINE DROWNED IN BALKANS DISASTER.

Belgrade, Mar. 30. During a sudden storm on Lake Ochrida, a motor-boat carrying a party of Jugo-Slavian diplomats and their wives on a pleasure trip, developed engine trouble and stopped.

The passengers, alarmed at the rocking of the boat in the storm, gradually became panic-stricken, and many of them jumped into the lake and tried to swim the two hundred yards to the shore.

Nine were drowned, only two reaching the shore alive.—Reuter.

DEATH OF MR. R. G. SHAW.

FORMER HUSBAND OF LADY ASTOR.

New York, Mar. 30. The death is announced of Mr. Robert Gould Shaw, the first husband of Lady Astor, from whom he was divorced in 1903, when he married Miss Mary Converse, a member of a well-known Boston family.

Mr. Shaw was a prominent sportsman and an enthusiastic polo player.—Reuter's American Service.

VAN LEAR BLACK FLIGHT.

AIRMAN LEAVES SHANGHAI FOR SEOUL.

Shanghai, Mar. 31. Mr. Van Lear Black, the millionaire newspaper owner, took off at 3.58 a.m. to-day on resuming his flight. He is making for Osaka via Seoul.—Reuter.

SHANGHAI STRIKE THREATENED.

CARGO COOLIES LIKELY TO STOP WORK.

MOVEMENT ATTRIBUTED TO POLITICAL AGITATION.

LATEST WAR REPORTS.

Shanghai, Mar. 30. Political agitation against the National Government and the Chiang Kai-shek regime is understood to be behind a contemplated strike by Chinese labourers at Shanghai which, if it materialises, will involve some 10,000 cargo coolies working on the Bund. Shipping circles are apprehensive.

Unconfirmed reports say that five thousand of the coolies have already walked out. Communists and Kuomintang extremists, who are opposed to Marshal Chiang Kai-shek are understood to be directing the strike movement and are said to be arousing discontent amongst the labourers.

Troop Movements.

Considerable troop movements took place at Hankow during the week-end. Eight thousand Nationalist troops, with explosive mines, left for Siangyang on the Hupoh-Honan frontiers.

The mines are to be placed in districts some forty miles from Hankow along the Peking-Hankow Railway, where the Nationalist forces are entrenched.

Extremist Activities.

Kuomintang extremists, including Messrs. Chan Kung-poh and Wang Fah-chun, are extremely active at Peking in disseminating anti-Nanking and anti-Chiang Kai-shek propaganda and summoning conferences of discontented Kuomintang followers.

The Kuomintang extremists are preparing a lengthy proclamation inviting Kuomintang Commissioners who attended the First and Second Plenary Sessions to proceed to Peking. A copy of the proclamation has been sent to Marshal Yen Hsi-shan for his approval.

Marshal Yen is understood to be assuming his new post as Commander-in-Chief of the anti-Nationalist forces some time this week. This may synchronize with an announcement of hostilities against Nationalist forces in Honan and Shantung.

Mr. Soong's Statement.

The Finance Minister, Mr. T. V. Soong, returned to Nanking this morning and expressed the opinion that Marshal Chiang Kai-shek has the Northern revolt well in hand. The Nationalist forces, said Mr. Soong, would crush the Shanai-Kuomintang allies who were seriously handicapped on account of lack of arms, ammunition and transportation facilities.

Marshal and Vice-Admiral Chan Shao-kuan arrived at Hangchow yesterday and will witness the All-China Sports Meeting.

Shansi Claim.

Peking, Mar. 30. The Shansi forces claim to have captured Kaifeng yesterday afternoon, Han Fu-chu's forces retreating north-westwards.—Reuter.

RECENT MALARIA LECTURE.

SUGGESTED MATERIAL FOR HEALTH PROPAGANDA.

At to-morrow's meeting of the Sanitary Board, the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, will ask: Will the Government undertake the translating into Chinese of the recent lecture delivered by the Honourable the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services on the subject of malaria?

Will the Government cause to be printed, in separate pamphlet form, in English and Chinese, the said lecture for distribution at such times and to such persons and educational and other institutions as may be considered most beneficial in connection with Health Propaganda in the Colony?

JOURNALISTS WIN AT SPELLING.

IN COMPETITION WITH U.S. CONGRESSMEN.

RELIEF FROM ROUTINE.

Washington, Mar. 30. Apparently arranged as a diversion from the routine of politics, members of the United States Congress were worried last night in a spelling contest between the members of Congress and newspaper correspondents in Washington.

The champions submitted by Congress for competition were obliged to retire one by one before such stumbling-blocks of spelling such as "eleemosynary," "referable" and "stalemate."

The last surviving member of the Congress representatives broke down at a very simple word, the spelling of "kimono." He gave it a final "a" instead of an "o."

The Washington correspondent of the leading New York newspaper was finally crowned "Champion Speller of the United States."

This strange contest was broadcast throughout the country. A bell was rung near the microphone whenever a competitor made a mistake.—Reuter's American Service.

[Simplified spelling agitation in Congress would appear to be a possible development.—Ed.]

THERE ACCIDENTS AT TAIKOO.

VICTIMS ALL SENT TO HOSPITAL.

Three accidents occurred at the Taikoo Docks yesterday, all the victims being removed for treatment to the Government Civil Hospital.

Cheung Sing, a coolie, suffered injuries to the right hand when it was crushed between the buffers of two trucks; Mah Yiu, another coolie, was accidentally struck in the face with a hammer; and a third case was that of Lo Ying, aged 48 years, a paint-scraper, who fractured his skull in falling from a staging, a height of some five feet, whilst carrying out work on the Mashima Maru.

PRINCE SAIONJI VERY ILL.

LAST SURVIVOR OF THE "GENRO."

Tokyo, Mar. 31. The aged Prince Saionji, the last survivor of the "Genro," a brilliant group of Elder Statesmen, who has been indisposed for the past few days, has taken a turn for the worse. Pneumonia has set in.

Owing to the advanced age of this "power behind the Throne," considerable anxiety is felt.—Reuter.

PALESTINE ARABS IN LONDON.

DELEGATION TO MEET LORD PASSFIELD.

London, Mar. 30. The Palestine Arab delegation reached London to-night. It is headed by Musa Kazim Pasha and includes also the Grand Mufti and the Mayor of Jerusalem. It will see Lord Passfield early in the coming week.—British Wireless.

INTER-ARMY RUGGER.

BRITAIN BEATS FRANCE IN PARIS.

Paris, Mar. 30. In the annual rugger match between the British and French Armies played to-day, the British Army won by five points to nil.—Reuter.

FINE TO CLOUDY.

The Royal Observatory reports that an area of high pressure extends from the Yangtze Valley to South Manchuria. A V-shaped depression lies over the Loochoos and a small shallow depression is central near Tournay. The local forecast till noon to-morrow is: North or variable winds, moderate; fine to cloudy.

QUEST FOR NAVAL FORMULA.

CONFERENCE TALKS CONTINUE.

NEW IMPASSE REPORTED TO HAVE ARISEN.

HEADS MEET TO-DAY.

London, Mar. 30. Although it is not yet clear whether any development in the Naval Conference situation will emerge from the new efforts the delegates showed no disposal to relax their attention on the problems before them during the week-end.

The Foreign Secretary, Mr. Henderson, who lunched with Mr. Briand on Saturday, afterwards had a long conversation with him, which it was arranged to continue later.

At the same time, Signor Grandi was meeting Senator Robinson, of the United States' delegation, and to-day he went to Chequers, where he lunched and talked with the Prime Minister.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald came to London to-night and will be present at to-morrow morning's meeting of the heads of all the delegations.

Meanwhile, the advisers of the British and French delegations have continued their informal meetings at which they have jointly explored methods of circumventing the apparent deadlock which confronted the Conference in its recent stages.—British Wireless.

Filling a Gap.

Later. The Naval Conference is continuing its attempt to find a formula which will fill the gap between the somewhat vague phraseology of Article Sixteen of the Covenant of the League of Nations and France's definite demand for security in return for a reduction in her naval building figures.

While it is recognised that the task of the experts is an extremely difficult one, there is always a possibility of obtaining a definition capable of satisfying everyone concerned.

It is with this hope that the discussions are proceeding and Article Sixteen is being very closely examined.

To-day's developments were few, consisting of conversations between Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and Signor Grandi, the chief Italian delegate, at Chequers, in regard to Italy's interest in a new definition of Article Sixteen and in the discussions for a satisfactory formula.

It was officially stated to-day by a British spokesman that Britain, emphatically, is anxious to do her utmost for peace, but further military commitments are absolutely impossible.

The British delegation to the Conference met at No. 10, Downing Street to-night on the return of the Prime Minister from Chequers.—Reuter.

A New Crisis.

London, Mar. 31. The newspapers give prominence to reports of a new crisis in the Naval Conference.

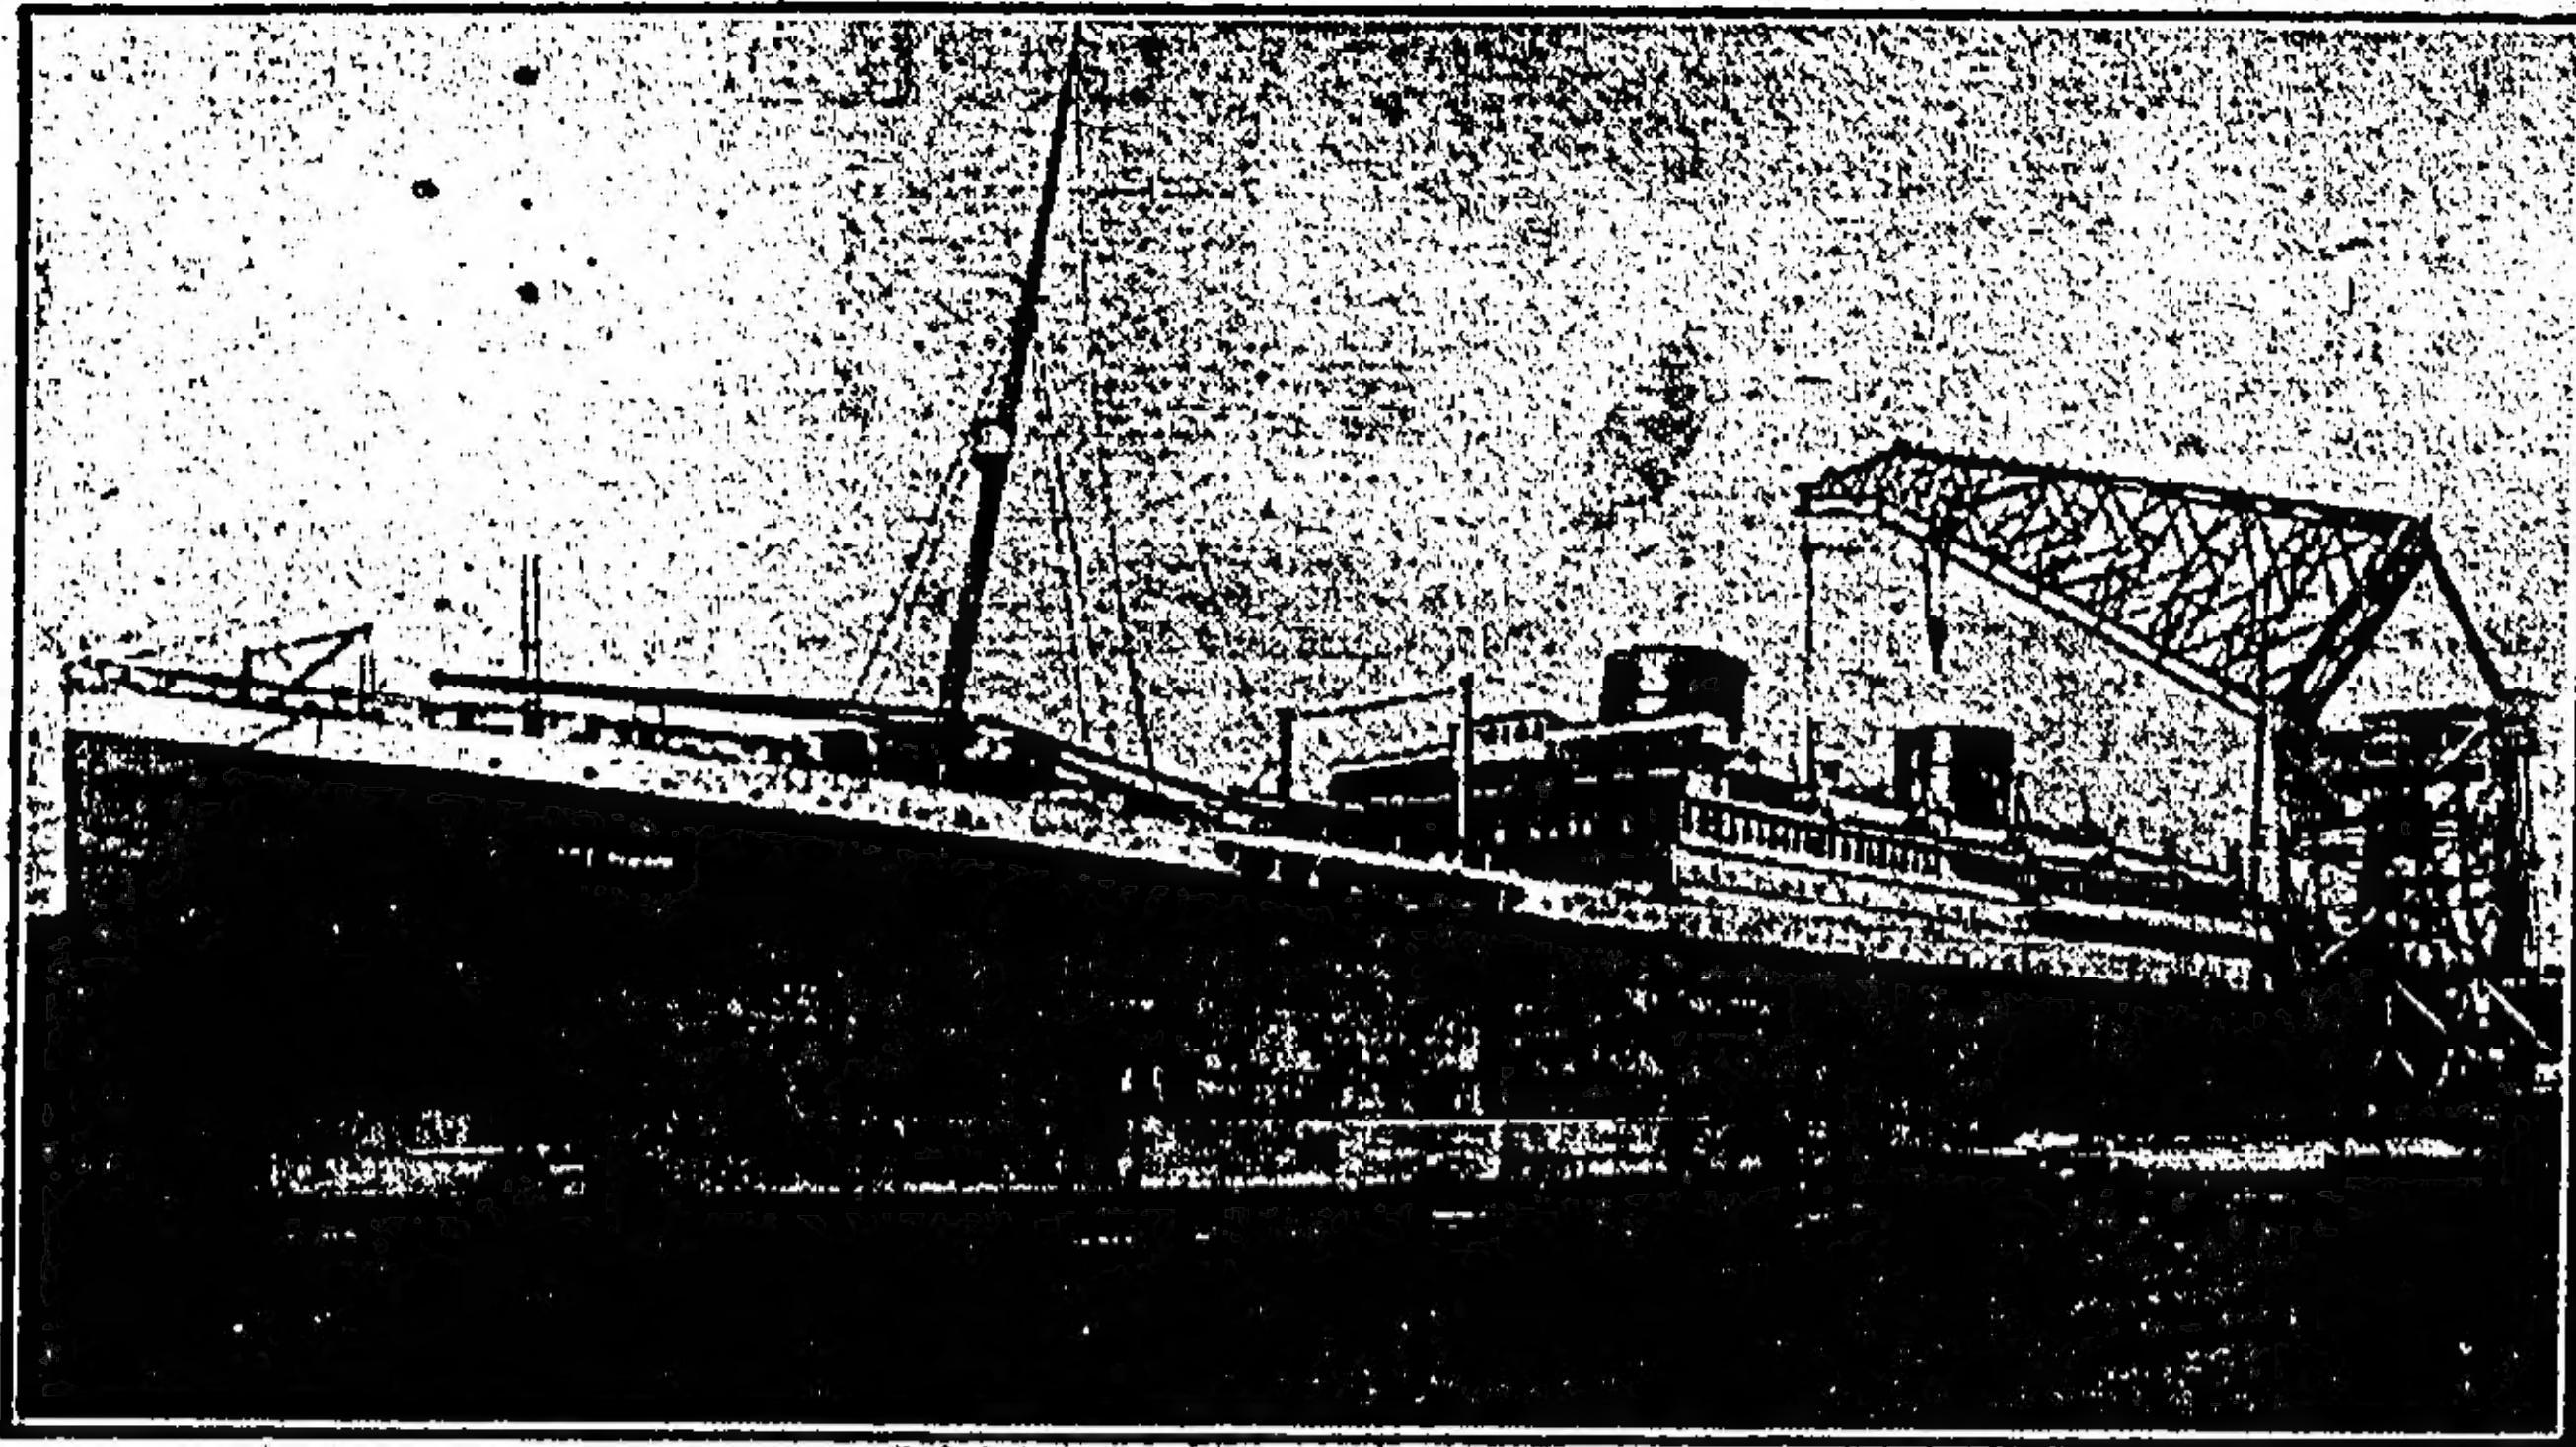

They declare that the British and French experts who have been searching for a formula to reconcile the British and French viewpoints have reached a complete deadlock.—Reuter.

Describing himself as a priest, an elderly Chinese appeared before Mr. Whyte Smith at the Kewloon Magistracy this morning on a charge of hawking medicine without a licence.

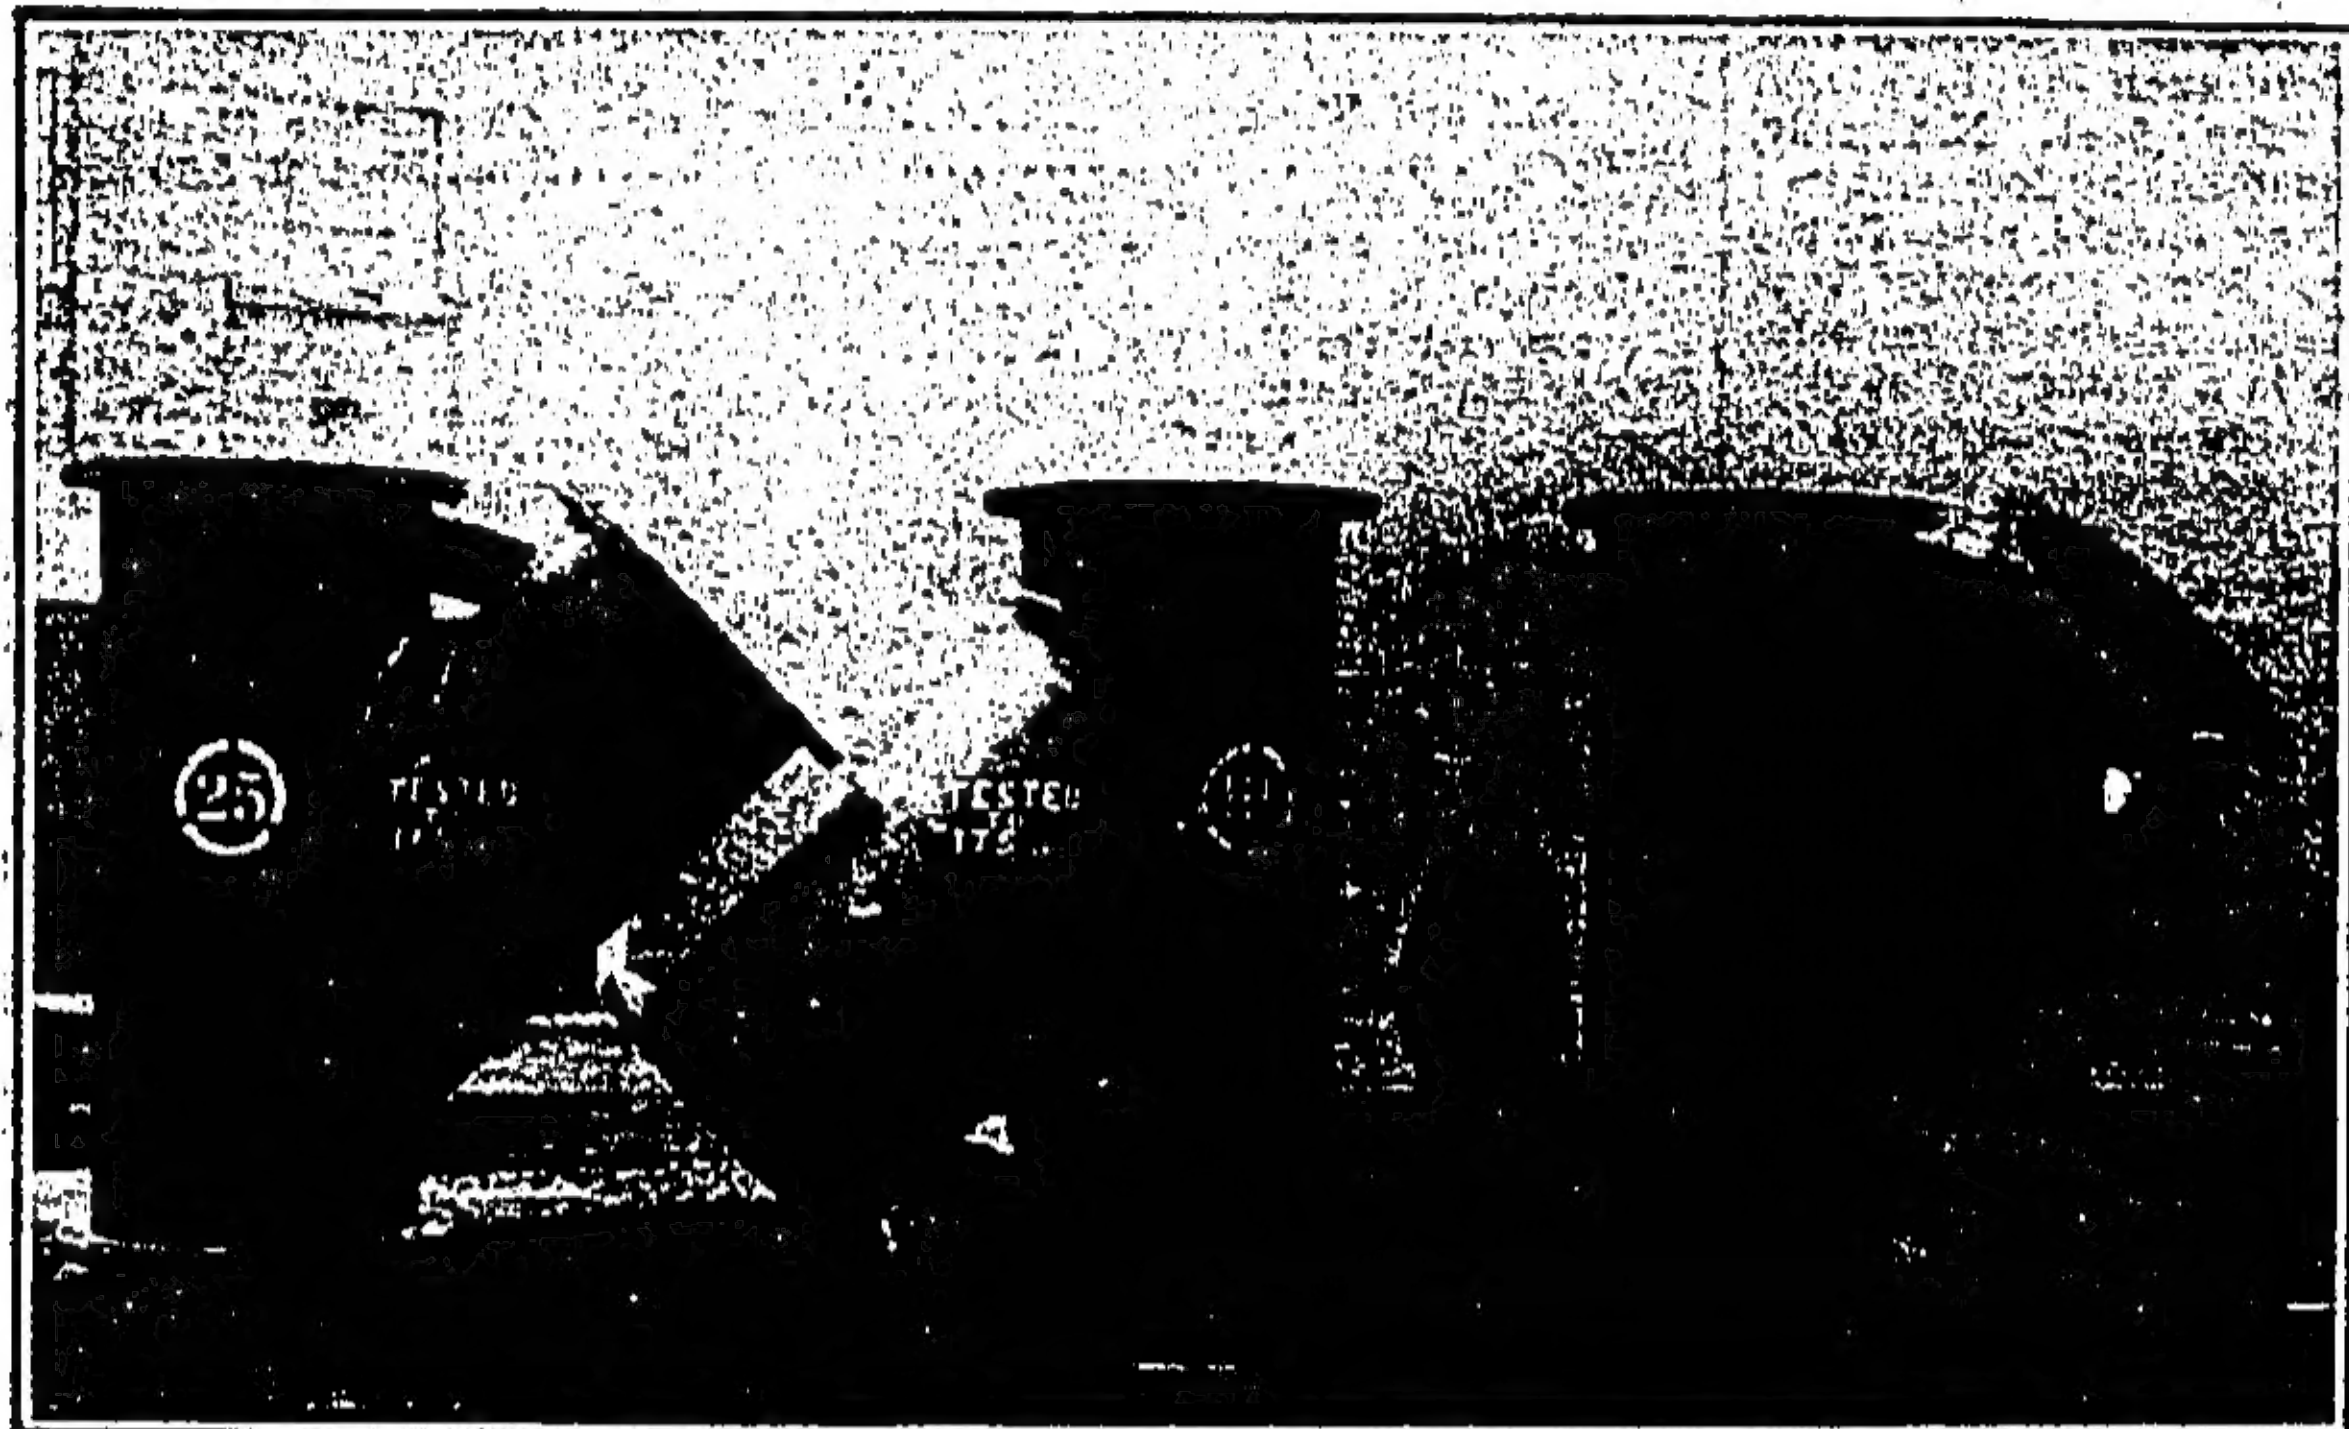

In answer to the charge, the defendant said he was not conversant with the local regulations.

P. C. Farrell informed his Worship that the defendant claimed to be a Taoist priest. His Worship pointed out to the defendant that he could not hawk without a licence, even if he were a priest. In view of the fact that he was an old man, he would be cautioned, but if he were arrested again, he could not expect his age to get him off.

COLLECTION OF TRADE STATISTICS.

On and after April 1, 1930, all importers and exporters of merchandise will be required to declare the nature, amount, and value of the goods imported or exported by them. The declarations are to be made on the import and export declaration forms supplied by the Statistical Office, 2nd floor, Beasfield Arcade, where forms in English or Chinese can be obtained.

In filling up these forms, the following points should be noted:—
"Manner of arrival" or "departure" need only be indicated when goods enter or leave by rail, road, or air. "Description" should follow as closely as possible the classification list which will shortly be published: price 50c, obtainable at the Statistical Office. "Weight or measurement" should be given according to the classifier used in the list for each type of goods. "Value" of imports should be the cost of goods as landed, in Hongkong dollars; of exports, the cost as shipped. "Country of origin" means origin in present condition, not origin of raw material. Where the country of origin is unknown, the country of shipment should be given. Different classes of goods, or cargo by different steamers, may be entered on a single form if desired, but import and export cargo must be kept separate. The completed declarations must reach the Statistical Office not more than 7 days after bills of lading have been presented at the shipping office (in the case of imports); or, for exports, after the ship carrying the cargo has left the harbour. Thus any firm wishing to send in declarations weekly can do so. They may be sent by messenger or by post.

To enable shipping companies to make their returns, all documents presented to them by importers and exporters, such as bills of lading, mate's receipts etc., must bear the name and address of the person or firm presenting them clearly stamped or written.

AIRMEN MEET EARLY MISFORTUNE.

FORCED DOWN IN NORTHERN AUSTRALIA.

Sydney, Mar. 29.

Early misfortune has met the twenty-year old airman, Smith, who is accompanied by a man named Shiers, who are attempting a flight to England. They reached Newcastle Water yesterday, preparatory to their proposed trip, and later took off in their plane, which bears the name "City of Sydney."

They were forced down forty miles from Wyndham in North Australia. Food and water are available in plenty for the airmen and they are in communication with the wireless station at Darwin.—Reuter.

CINEMA NOTES.

STYLISH CLOTHES SIMPLE
SAYS NORMA TALMADGE

Let the average girl dress to suit her personality, says Norma Talmadge, and she will increase her attractiveness a thousand per cent. The star of "New Nights" to be shown at the Queen's Theatre, on Wednesday feels that too many young women wear the sort of clothes that look attractive on others.

"And they overlook the fact," says Miss Talmadge, "that what may appear smart on one person is unsuitable on themselves."

"I would recommend that every girl study her personality and dress accordingly. It isn't hard to do."

Miss Talmadge feels that gaudiness as it applies to wearing apparel is a thing of the past. Colours, she feels, accentuate bad lines and advertise them blantly.

"To the girl who is uncertain what to wear, I should say this, Wear simple clothes. They are always smart, and what is better, always correct."

"As to colouring, I believe that neutral tints such as tans and beiges age the best. Naturally, the fact must not be lost sight of that colouring should also fit the personality. Some persons look best in black, others in mauves. That again is a matter of study."

Miss Talmadge is recognized as one of the best dressed women in the screen colony. She has made the scientific study of what to wear, and how to wear it, one of her foremost hobbies. She believes that the greatest individuality can be expressed in garments that have the good taste of plainness. The really smart woman, she contends, has a mania against frills and decorative effects.

"Now We're in the Air" at Majestic.

Two Americans disguised as Scottish Highlanders enlist as aviators at a French airport, and are sentenced to death as German spies. Only Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton could appear to advantage in such a ridiculous situation. And they do so in "Now We're in the Air," the new Paramount comedy which had its first local showing at the Majestic Theatre, Kowloon, last night.

Here is a comedy that has everything—good photography, good direction, capable stars, and most remarkable, a good story. The latter anomaly may be laid at the door of Monte Brice, Keene Thompson, and Tom J. Geraghty. Frank Strayer directed the picture.

Beery and Hatton have done the impossible and topped all their previous success. "Behind the Front," "We're in the Navy Now," and "Firemen, Save My Child."

Berry and Hatton became aviators when their clothes were blown off when they got in front of a battery of airplane propellers on the testing blocks at flying field. They fall in love with twin sisters, one of whom has been raised in Germany and the other a French girl. Many of their difficulties arise over their inability to tell their sweethearts apart, which is not surprising: when it is considered that the same Louise Brooks plays the both parts capably and charmingly.

The gags are new and frequent throughout the picture and will raise Beery and Hatton to a still higher plane as laugh-provokers. They have splendid support in the cast which includes Malcolm Waite, as the German spy, Duke Martin as the top sergeant, harboled as usual, Emile Chautard and Russell Simpson.

"Skinner Steps Out."

The all-talkie comedy, "Skinner Steps Out," which provides the main attraction in the current bill at the Queen's Theatre, stars the juvenile actor, Glenn Tryon, in the title role, with Merna Kennedy lending excellent support. It is the story of a city clerk who is helped by his wife to take greater account of himself than he himself does, with consequences which are awkward at the beginning but happily beneficial in the end.

Skinner provides exasperating fun when he "steps out" at a charity bazaar, and again when he reacts to the "ups" and "downs" which intervene before the happy conclusion.

A musical feature, a movietone news reel, and a Hal Roach talkie comedy complete an admirably varied programme.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

A graphic description of the cause, progress and cure of sciatica is supplied by Mr. A. F. Fowler, Queenstown, South Africa. "Some years ago through a severe wetting and remaining in very wet clothes I developed sciatica," he writes. "Those who have never had it can little understand what it means, but to a sciatica sufferer it means horrible agonising torture. I had a sharp cutting pain from my back to my heel; it was most painful for me to get up after I had been sitting for a while; the cords in my leg seemed to be drawing together, and the pain felt as if someone was driving a long needle down my leg. I had medicine prescribed for me, which did no good, and I was beginning to lose general tone for want of sleep and loss of appetite. One day I was told I ought to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking the pills for a time the twinges of sciatica ceased, and gradually all pain disappeared. I continued taking the pills, and got quite toned up and myself again."

As a remedy for disorders of the blood and nerves such as anaemia, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, neuralgia, indigestion, also the special ailments of women, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have enjoyed a world-wide reputation for over thirty years. Chemists everywhere sell them. $1.50 per bottle, six bottles $8. But be sure and see that you get the genuine. Imitations and substitutions are useless.

WOMAN'S WORLD

FOR OUR LADY READERS.

Life not Easy.

THE TRIALS OF THE BEAUTY.

Despite the fact that life is rarely easy either for the very beautiful woman or the very fascinating one, women, in their millions, will always envy both.

Not all the tragedies in history that have befallen beautiful women since the world began could make of beauty the gift that no woman wants.

Perhaps this is because woman wants, above all else, to be a joy to herself, as well as to others.

Perhaps it is only that she cannot believe in the sorrows that beauty may bring, until she is right up against them.

The fate of a Bobby Storey's sadens but does not convince.

What are these trials of which one hears so much, she asks?

Surely there are no difficulties for the beautiful girl that common-sense will not overcome.

That may be true, and if strength of will were always found in a marked degree along with beauty, it ought not to be so dangerous a gift. But then it is not.

However, it must be allowed that there is room for sympathy with the very plain girl who declares that she would like to exchange handicaps with the beauty!

Ever since her film debut Mary Brian has been able to retain her long hair—but now she's lost it. To take the part assigned her in "The Children," she had to have short hair, and her hairdresser's shown bobbing Mary.

Different Types.

THE HURRICANE WOMAN.

She was a dashing young girl when I first met her. In truth she was rushing for a train, and the thing that really got me was the magnificent spurt she put on just as the train got on the move.

Although a little breathless after the charge, that didn't deter her from banging her suitcase on the rack, pulling off her hat and powdering her nose before she settled herself comfortably in a corner.

That's the kind of girl I've always liked. One of the sort that can get a move on without having recourse to smelling salts whenever she has to hustle.

I liked her so well in fact, that after a preliminary skirmish—we got married.

Now, after a year or two of it—she still hustles. She has the same dash for a train or tram as she used to have. When she rises in the morning she does a miniature "Schneider" to get the breakfast ready in time.

By her flushed face at lunch I can see the race is still on. At tea, her hat has not been removed, so I know she has just beat me home by a short head.

"If you hurry, old bean," she says, "we'll just have time for the theatre." So I get dragged into the maddening whirl. A frantic effort gets us there as the curtain rises, and I puff and blow the powder from the chums for an hour or so.

After the performance there is another mad scramble for a bus, which is duly caught by the skin of our teeth. I arrive home limp and exhausted, and feeling like a wet rag.

To-day, I'm not so sure about admiring the dashing type of girl.

For The Hostess.

ABOUT BRIDGE TABLES.

The bridge party hostess who sometimes finds it necessary to provide an extra card-table may readily convert any small table, either round or cornered, to her purpose. Green baize cut to the exact size, and edged with a strip of strong cotton material to match through which is a runner of elastic, serves its turn excellently. The elastic keeps the cover stretched securely over the table-top, and the baize can be removed after the rubber is over.

Because a green table-top is worn and soiled is no reason for discarding the table. It is quite easy to remove the wooden beading and put new baize, or more smartly, green felt, and then nail the beading on again.

A coat of dark floor stain or varnish on the woodwork of a cheap card-table gives it a much better appearance.

Speed is all very well on the dirt-track, but when one is pitched into it, well—that's a different matter.

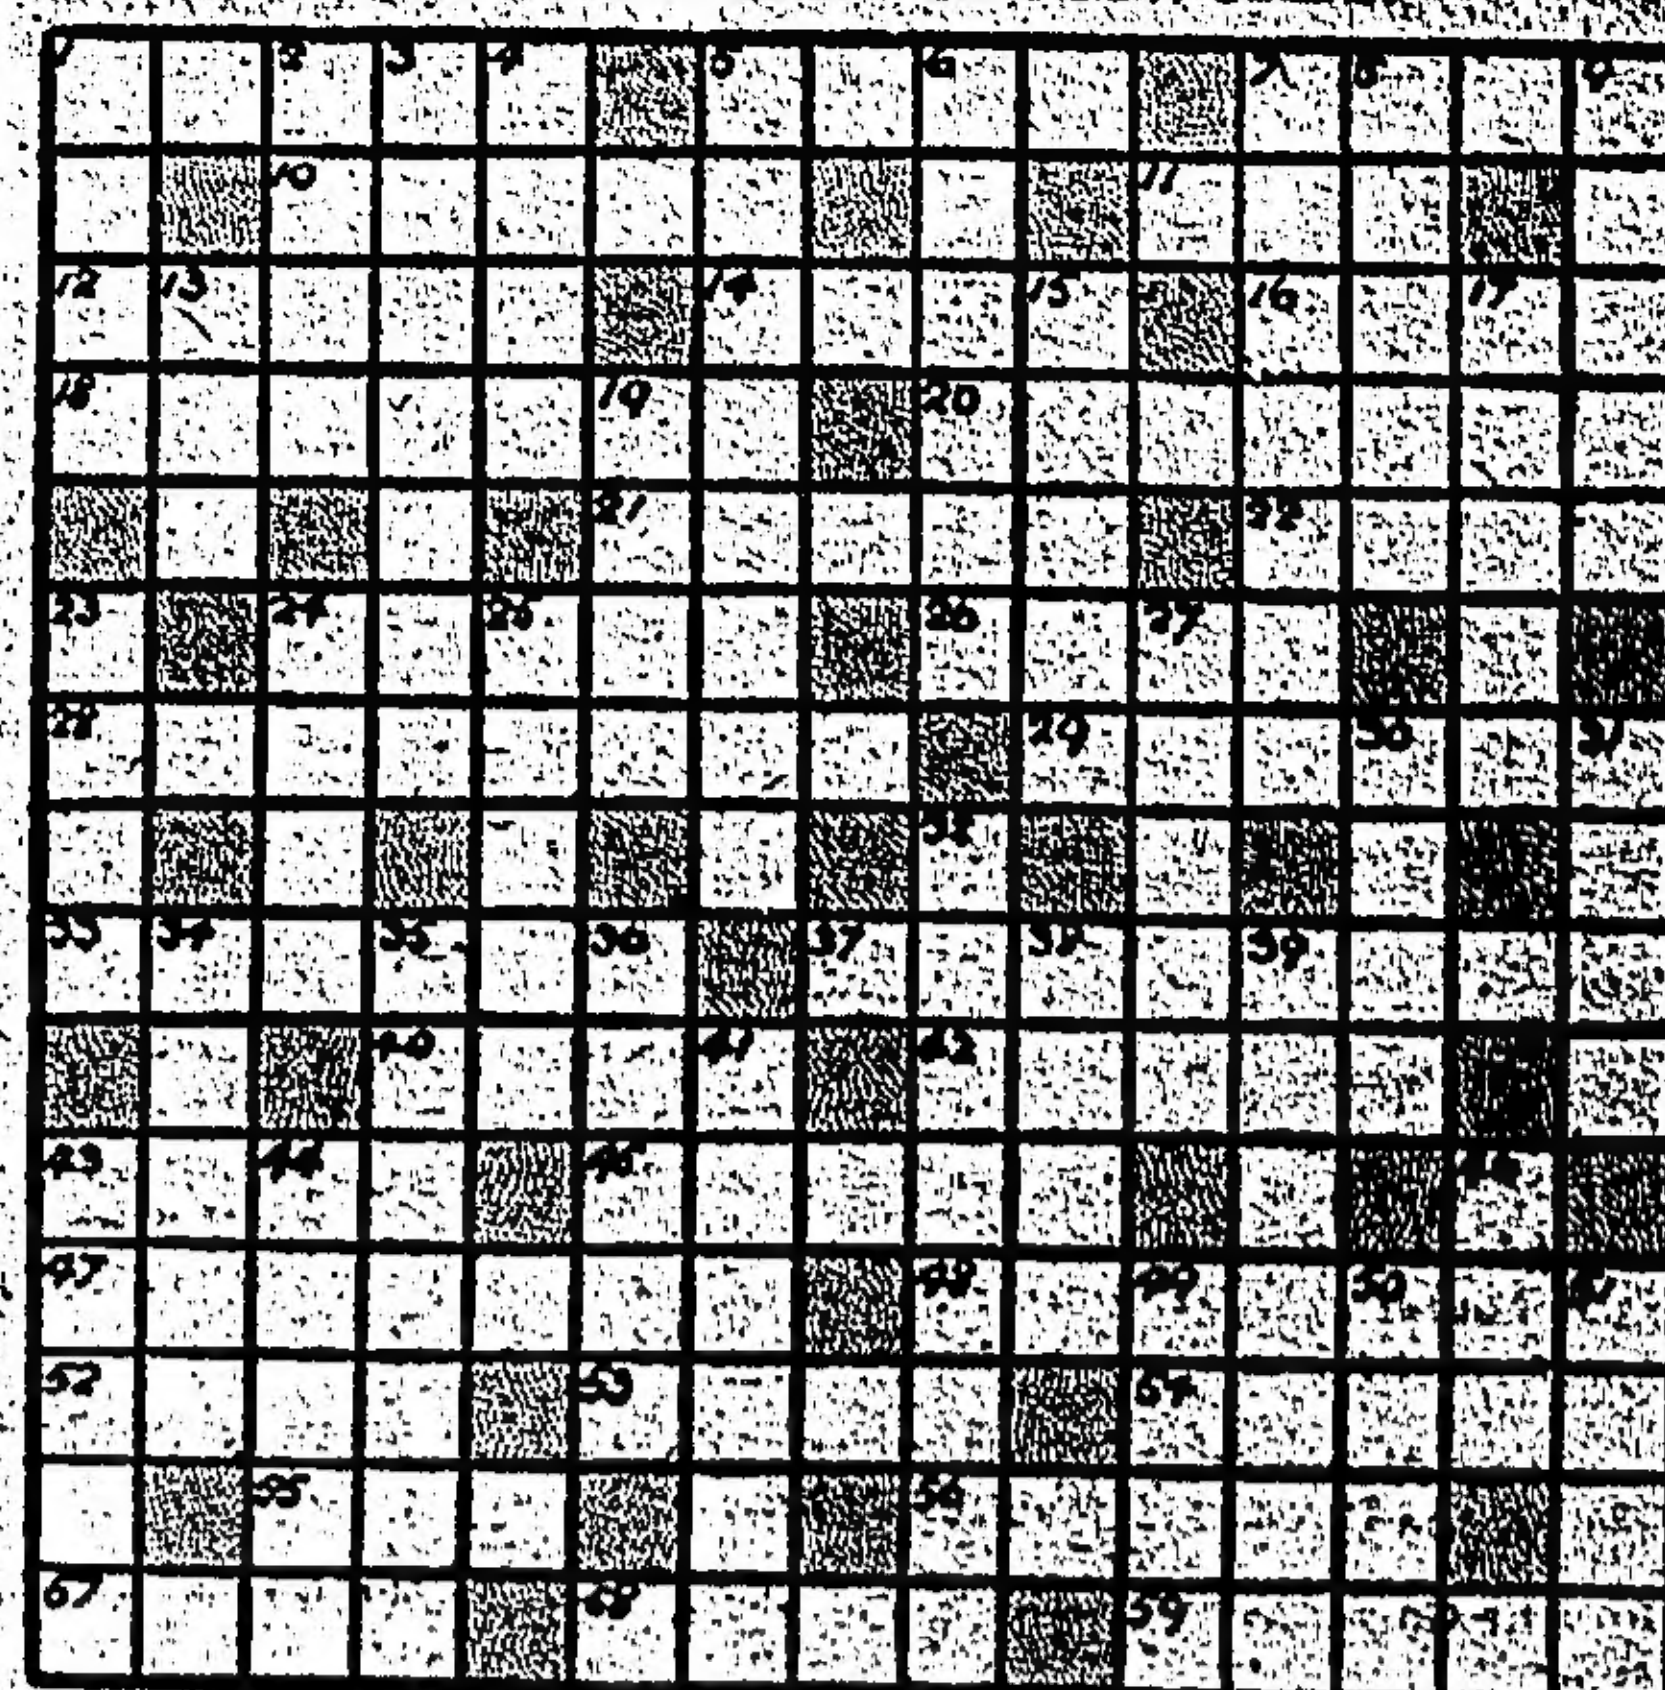

Really there is something to be said for the old-fashioned sort we read about. Oalm and dignified was their motto, and they lived up to it.

How many men want to be hauled out at night after a hard day's work? To many of them a pipe and a trip round the garden is the essence of comfort and is soothing to their jaded nerves the "stronger vessel" into a turbulent sea of feverish activity.

No wonder the Victorian girl is mourned by so many of us. "Home" was home in those days; not merely a place to be blown out of by a hurricane in skirts.

POLICE ATTACK ON FOREIGNER.

REMARKABLE AFFAIR IN SHANGHAI.

CHANGTEH HERO RESISTS CHINESE CONSTABLES.

STRUGGLE ON A BUS.

A savage and unwarranted attack on a well-known foreign resident of Shanghai by four Chinese constables of Jessfield Village, during which the foreigner was struck and beaten and threatened with knives and pistols, but bravely stood his ground and beat off his attackers, took place during last week on an International Settlement road and in broad daylight.

The victim of the attack was Mr. H. C. Pelling, who was one of the heroes of the siege of Changteh, during April of 1929, at which time he was badly wounded and has not yet fully recovered from the wounds.

Mr. Pelling is chief inspector for the China General Omnibus Company, and it was in one of the vehicles of the company that the attack took place.

Refusal to Pay Fares.

A bus operated by the company had reached a point near Kinohow Road, when four police constables of Jessfield Village boarded the vehicle. Mr. Pelling was aboard the vehicle and was appealed to by the conductor, after the constables had abusively refused to pay their fare.

Mr. Pelling approached the constables and in Chinese, which he speaks fluently, requested them to pay the fare. They persisted in their refusal, but upon being informed that they would have to pay or leave the bus, they angrily threw a 20-cent piece, the exact total of the fare, at the conductor. The constables demanded eight coppers in change.

Explanations were offered by Mr. Pelling and the conductor, but the constables became more abusive.

Trouble at Jessfield.

They finally subsided but only until the bus reached Jessfield Village, the terminus.

On each side of the road is Chinese controlled territory, but the road itself is controlled by the S.M.C. Upon reaching the village the four constables attacked the inspector, striking him about the face and body and threatening him with their guns and knives. All four carried pistols and knives.

Seizing the inspector by the arms, the quartette attempted to drag him from the vehicle and into Chinese territory. Mr. Pelling, whose courage has been tested before in various parts of China and under dangerous circumstances, resisted to the utmost and prevented the ruffians from dragging him from the bus. At the same time he shouted to the conductor to close the door of the bus and to tell the driver to make a quick run for the nearest Settlement police station.

Appeal To Crowd.

The constables, however, hearing and understanding the orders, and being unable to overpower their victim, jumped from the vehicle and appealed to the quickly-formed crowd of Chinese to help in the attack on the foreigner.

The inspector quickly informed the crowd that the constables had attempted to ride on the bus without paying for the trip, pointing out that they were no better than any other passenger.

At one time moving forward as if to attack the bus, the crowd listened and became sympathetic.

In the midst of the excitement three more Jessfield Village constables rushed up, one of them, without waiting for an explanation of the trouble, swinging at Mr. Pelling's head with a rifle. The inspector ducked the blow.

Sensing an antagonistic attitude in the crowd, which constantly increased, the constables made a hurried withdrawal. The bus left the scene without molestation.

Changteh Affair.

In connexion with another thrilling incident in which the foreign inspector took a leading part, it may be recalled that with five other foreigners he figured in the siege of Changteh by red-turbaned bandits.

In that incident Mr. Pelling, who is a British subject, was shot and badly wounded, but managed to escape after a terrible experience, the foreigners being under fire for nearly a fortnight.

GOVERNMENT SUES TIMBER CO.

PIER DAMAGED IN TYPHOON LAST YEAR.

BY LOGS OR SAMPAN?

Damage done to a new Government pier at the end of Tonachy Road, Praya East Reclamation, during the typhoon of August 22, 1929, was the subject of an action which was brought by the Hon. Attorney General, against the On Cheung Timber Company and Ho Kai-chik, proprietor, of Tonachy Road, in the Summary Court this morning before the Puisne Judge (Mr. Justice Wood).

Government claimed the sum of $658, alleging damage to the pier by a number of floating logs which defendants had negligently kept improperly secured in close proximity to the pier.

Mr. L. R. Andrewes, Crown Solicitor, conducted the case for the Crown, and Mr. F. C. E. Rendall defended.

A Chinese P.W.D. foreman, stated, in evidence, that he visited the pier on August 21 and noticed nine logs floating loose near pier, three being underneath the pier. They were about 80 to 35 feet long and about two feet in circumference. He warned defendant's foreman to move them, as they were bumping against the pier and a typhoon signal was up. There was a typhoon on August 23, but witness did not visit the pier that day as many other piers were damaged. He went to the place on August 23 and found six logs still floating loose, but the three underneath the pier had gone.

Cross-examined by Mr. Rendall, witness said on August 21 only negligible damage had been done. He did not see 100 pieces of American pine and there were nine logs, not six.

Would it surprise you to know that four of these logs were found in the Naval Yard after the typhoon?—I don't know that.

That they were brought back to the Praya Wall on the following day, and that another log was found in the middle of the Harbour and also brought back?—That is his business. I don't know that.

Steps Smashed.

Replying to his Lordship, witness said the pier was made of concrete with iron steps on concrete ledges. There was no damage to the supports, but the handrailing and steps were damaged, the lower six steps being smashed. He did not think the damage could have been caused either by waves or a sampan, as the pier was very strong and a sampan was light.

Mr. C. W. Jeffries, F.R.A.S., of the Royal Observatory, gave evidence as to typhoon signals displayed during the period.

Mr. A. Anderson, engineer of the P.W.D., produced the construction contract for the pier, saying it was part of the reclamation scheme, and gave evidence to the effect that the pier was the property of the Government. He gave it as his opinion that the damage might have been caused by a junk. Damaged portions could not be repaired but would have to be replaced.

Mr. Rendall—Is this pier going to be repaired?—Yes, as soon as we get some money.

His Lordship (smilingly):—I don't quite get that. Are you waiting until the boat comes in?—We are waiting in the hope we shall get money out of this claim.

Mr. Rendall—You mean if you succeed in this action and we pay you, you will repair the pier?—Yes.

His Lordship—I see. Pier is postponed pending this action.

Mr. R. P. Shaw, P.W.D. overseer, said that the damage could undoubtedly have been done by the logs.

Defendant's Evidence.

Ho Kai-chik stated, in evidence, that he was the proprietor of defendant company. On August 21, 1929, he took delivery of 100 pieces of American pine wood and six pieces of Kapur wood from a ship. He also obtained from Kowloon godowns six logs. He had the wood taken to the pier but as he knew a typhoon was approaching, he instructed his folks to get the wood on to the land. At about nine o'clock on the morning of August 22 he discovered that the six logs had not been removed to land, so he telephoned to Leung Wan-kee, in Kowloon, asking for the use of a motor boat to tow the logs away. The motor boat was not available, as Leung Wan-kee was shifting his own logs with it.

In cross-examination defendant said he conferred with Mr. Andrewes and Mr. Holmes and had asked them to reduce the claim to $300. In the course of further cross-examination, defendant said it was an accident that the logs remained in the water during the typhoon.

The case was adjourned.

THE FRANCONIA NOW IN PORT.

BIG CUNARD LINER ON A WORLD TOUR.

STRAITS CRITICISM.

Bringing over 400 tourists here, the Cunard Liner Franconia arrived in Hongkong from Manila this morning, on her seventh cruise of the world. She went alongside at Kowloon on arrival, and this morning quite a batch of her passengers made the trip to Canton.

The Franconia left New York on January 11th and before her tour is finished she will have covered 35,000 miles. A 20,000 tons liner, the Franconia is one of the magnificent fleet of Cunarders. She has a length of 624 feet, depth of 45 feet and breadth 84 feet.

First Class Restaurant.

The first class dining saloon has all the atmosphere of an exclusive hotel or restaurant. A delightful colour scheme and a perfect system of lighting provided by oxydised silver table lamps have been adopted. Small tables at which parties of friends can dine run throughout the room.

Other public rooms in the Franconia include a card room, a blue and gold drawing room furnished with comfortable settees and chairs for reading and special small tables for writing, and garden lounges which, enclosed by windows, overlook the sea. The decks of these lounges have been specially treated for dancing.

Private Suites and Bedrooms.

The bedroom accommodation of the Franconia is unusually luxurious and comfortable. There are a number of suites comprising sitting room, bedroom and bathroom, whilst there are a large number of bedrooms fitted with magnificent beds, dressing tables, wardrobes and night tables. Before sailing from Liverpool last December many of the bedrooms in the Franconia were entirely redecorated, costly fabrics being used for the walls replacing the previous painted hardwood panels. All the rooms are supplied with hot and cold running water, whilst many of them have private bathrooms adjoining.

The Franconia combines every known and approved hotel invention and improvement that will increase comfort and convenience and expedite service. She has a valeting service, hairdresser's saloon, information bureau, circulating library, chocolate shop, a complete laundry, a hospital and operating theatre, printing office and electrical lifts. In fact nothing that a vast experience could suggest or that science could carry out has been overlooked.

Strange Order.

A somewhat strange touch to the visit in Penang of the tourists' palace-ship, the Franconia, which belongs to the Cunard line, was provided by the instruction said to have been issued by the commander, states the Straits Echo, which was informed by the agents Mansfield and Co., that this gentleman "does not desire to have any visitors on board." The attitude of the officer, says the Journal, is in striking contrast with the facilities and courtesies usually extended by commanders of large touring ships that come into the harbour. They realise that the people of the port are entitled to some return of the implied

RECKLESS RICKSHA COOLIE.

PASSENGER INJURED BY A MOTOR BUS.

SHAFTS DROPPED.

The action of a ricksha coolie in dropping the shafts of his vehicle and throwing his passenger out on to the road, directly in front of an oncoming motor bus, was described to Mr. Lindsell at the Central Magistracy this morning, when the coolie was charged with driving his ricksha to the danger of the public and without a licence.

Defendant pleaded guilty to both charges, and Inspector Alexander, in relating the facts, said that about 6.30 p.m. on March 22, the defendant was conveying a Chinese passenger along Queen's Road Central, and when near Kamyu Street, he suddenly swerved across the road, directly in front of public motor bus, No. 604, which was proceeding from east to west.

The coolie then dropped the shafts of the ricksha, with the result that the passenger was thrown beneath the wheel of the bus. Fortunately, the driver realised the danger and pulled up immediately, but not before the wheel had struck the man in the side. The blow ruptured the man's liver. It was later found that the defendant had no licence.

The Magistrate convicted, and imposed fines of $25, or 14 days, for dangerous driving and $5, or seven days, for having no licence.

THEFTS FROM CITY OFFICES.

CHINESE GETS SIX-MONTH GAOL TERM.

Sentence of six months' imprisonment was passed on a Chinese by Mr. Lindsell, at the Central Magistracy this morning, when the man was charged on three counts of larceny from well-known City business houses. Accused pleaded guilty to stealing a gramophone, a silver cornet and a camera from the Canton Trading Association, China Building; a wall clock from the Mitsui Chosen Kaisha, Pedder Building; and an alarm clock from the Texas Oil Company, Queen's Building. He was sentenced to two months in each case. The total value of the articles was stated to be $250. The police stated that they found defendant to have 41 pawn tickets in his possession at the time of his arrest, but although they had made full enquiries, they could not trace the owners of any of the goods.

courtesy that is extended to the passengers who are enabled to room around and see the beauties of the island. If the commander was afraid of thefts from the cabins he could take the precautions usually taken in other ships—the cabins can be locked until their occupants return, laden with the gifts purchased in the port. But the port's inhabitants are denied the mere courtesy of inspecting what is a development of modern comfort and education.

A similar demonstration of British "publicity methods" was given when the Franconia arrived at Singapore, says the Straits Times.

"Boop-boop-a-deep, we-da-de-nh."
"Swell, Ben; that's just what it needed—heart interest."

FAMILIAR FRAUD.

HOW A CHINESE LOST SIXTY DOLLARS.

The well-known fraud practised on ignorant women by Chinese who produce letters purporting to have been written by relatives authorising the bearer to collect a certain sum of money, was again related to Mr. Whyte Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

The defendant admitted the charge and accused another man of having instructed him to go to the complainant's house.

Detective Sergeant Fowle told his Worship that a letter was supposed to have been written by the complainant's husband in Singapore intimating that he had borrowed $60 from a man who would call upon the complainant, who should return the money to his creditor on his behalf.

On March 16th, the defendant presented the letter to the complainant and obtained the $60, but it later transpired that the letter had not been sent by the husband. The defendant was subsequently arrested.

The defendant was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

THE WORLD OF SPORT

SENIOR DIVISION
ASPIRANTS.WINNING GOALS LATE
IN GAMES.ROYAL NAVY IN A STRONG POSITION.

ATHLETIC'S CHANCE.

[By "Wanderer."]

The championship of the Senior Division was almost, but not quite, decided on Saturday. It was a curious coincidence that the Royal Navy and Chinese Athletic, the two interested teams, should score winning goals almost simultaneously on different grounds. The Navy's goal, coming five minutes from the end of their game with the Police, made it certain that their total of points will not be exceeded; the Athletic's goal scored against South China almost at the same time keeps them in the running; they can beat the Navy on goal average if they win their next two games.

This is assuming that the League will follow precedent and award the Navy two points for the match cancelled by Kowloon, and the circumstances leave little option. On this basis, the leading positions in the table are as follows:

Royal Navy	20	13	5	2	39	23	31
K.O.S.B.	20	11	6	3	45	21	27
Athletic	18	12	3	3	41	18	27
Somersets	17	11	2	4	40	13	24

Another important result was recorded in the Junior Division. The Navy Reserves have practically destroyed their chances of overtaking the K.O.S.B. by failing to defeat Eastern. South China "A" and Chinese Athletic "A" now stand the best chance.

The leading positions in the Junior League follow:

K.O.S.B.	28	23	2	3	113	17	48
Navy Res.	23	17	4	2	84	13	38
S. China "A"	21	17	1	3	69	17	35
Chinese "A"	20	16	2	2	57	20	34

Both the Chinese teams have a heavy programme, but it seems likely that one or the other will get through successfully.

In the Senior League, the Athletic have a severe obstacle to overcome in the Somersets. Success would bring them their third successive championship. The results of Saturday's games follow:

Senior Division
Somersets	3	Kowloon	1
Navy	3	Police	2
Athletic	1	S. China	0
St. Joseph's	1	Recreio	1

Junior Division
Somersets	9	Kowloon	0
University	4	Athletic "B"	0
S. China "A"	3	Club	1
Athletic "A"	1	S. China "B"	0
Eastern	0	Navy	0

SUEN WINS MATCH.

Great Goal Five Minutes From The End.

South China's defenders have rarely given a more impressive display, but Suen Kam-shun undid all their good work by a characteristic effort five minutes from the end. Up to that stage no goals had been scored, the fine kicking and tackling of Li Tin-sang and Lau Mau, supported by the splendid work of Pau Ka-ping between the sticks, nullifying the efforts of a lively attack which was on one of its best days. But Suen Kam-shun again proved a match-winner. There was no apparent danger when he received the ball, yet it was in the net before South China made a real move to avert a goal. Leung Wing-chiu went to tackle. Suen beat him and shot almost in the same movement. Pau Ka-ping had no possible chance.

It was a fitting end to an exceedingly fine game. The Athletic would have been unfortunate to have suffered the loss of a point as they attacked for sixty per cent. of the game. South China's efforts, incidentally, were mediocre by comparison. There was method in the Athletic attack. South China's forwards seemed to depend upon a mistake by the opposing defence. They had their chances, even this way, but frittered them away.

Teo Kwai-sing gave a sparkling display. His tactics appear to be clumsy, but he gets there just the same, and his centres are models, not only of accuracy but of judgment. Wong Pak-chong was at fault on many occasions when ideal centres were asking to be converted. Suen, except for his brilliant effort at the end, was a trifle off colour. He was closely shadowed by Leung Wing-chiu and the South China player did his job pretty effectively. Wong Mee-shun's bustling methods stopped many a dangerous attack, while the backs behind him rarely put a foot wrong.

Had South China been as well served forward as in defence, the result would probably have been different. The Athletic halves worked to good purpose, but the backs, Leung Yuk-tong and Lai Yuk-tai, seemed shaky under pressure. Leung Wing-tak failed to get his line together and only the wingers, Chen Shui-hong and Ip Pak-wa, were at all impressive. Pau Ka-ping had roughly twice as much to do as Chan Shek-pui.

NAVY PULL THROUGH.

Police Put up a Gallant Defence.

The Police gave one of their best displays of the season in many ways, but the Navy gained their just reward when they scored the winning goal some five minutes from the end.

The first half was full of thrills. The Navy opened the scoring early on and attacked so promisingly that a big win appeared to be in store. The Police fought back in an unexpectedly keen manner, and aided by a little loss, they scored two goals in quick time. Just before the interval, the Navy got on terms.

The second half soon resolved itself into a struggle between the Navy forwards and the Police defence. The defenders put up a capital show, but Van Tromp scored with a spectacular.

It was an interesting game though scrappy to a large extent. The Navy fielded practically a new team and they took some little time to settle down. The half-backs, fortunately, were in very good form or some of the very dangerous rush tactics exploited by the Police midway through the first half would have ended even more disastrously than proved to be the case.

Firth and Van Tromp showed their old artistry and understanding on the Navy right wing, indeed it may be noted that Firth obtained the first two goals and Van Tromp the last. The return of the Hermes in the morning was a fortunate circumstance for the Navy.

KOWLOON OUT OF LUCK.

Put up a Great Game Against Somersets.

The Somersets defeated Kowloon by three goals to one by accepting their opportunities, but the result was against the run of the play. Kowloon had the better of the encounter prior to the interval, and they quite held their own in the second half. They have only themselves to blame, however. Numerous chances came their way, and though the fact that they struck the Somersets cross-bar on three occasions must be accounted bad luck, other easier scoring chances were missed badly. Miles put wide from three yards when the score was 1-1.

Kowloon scored first, Hedley snapping up a rare opportunity in great style within ten minutes. The home team took energy from this and Hall was seriously troubled for some little time. When the Somersets did get away they were exceedingly dangerous, Butcher showing delightful form on the right wing, while Bewley-Bull was a lively customer in the goalmouth. Rayson equalised when less than a minute remained before half-time, meeting with a brilliant shot from twenty yards. Kowloon missed several chances before the Somersets took the lead in a lucky manner. Eastman backheeled towards his own goal, Angus failed to hold a twisting ball, and Earley was on the spot, making no mistake. Butcher was responsible for the third goal close to the finish. Angus ran out to meet him but failed to clear properly.

West was outstanding in the Somersets defence, and Butcher was far and away the most dangerous attacker. He received capital support from Bewley-Bull. Kowloon were best served by Cotton-Dowman, McKelvie and Hedley. Hedley did well in the centre-forward position.

SECOND DIVISION
CRICKET.CLUB DE RECREIO AT TOP OF THE TABLE.

The only cricket match played on Saturday was that between the Club de Recreio and the Police at King's Park. The Recreio won by 28 runs and now go to the top of the table, with a point better than the Hongkong C. C., who will now have to win their last match with the Indian E. C. in order to secure the championship.

The Recreio batted first and ran up a total of 102 runs. Guterres, Barros and H. M. Xavier got into the twenties. Although there were no double figures, scores on the Police side, the visitors could only get 76.

In a listless end of the season game. Both defences were a trifle slack, and if the forwards had not been similarly affected, scoring would have been on the high side. The Recreio particularly lacked enterprise and when Ward gave them the lead before the interval—as the result of a good piece of work—they had not earned the advantage. St. Joseph's were the better team after the interval also, and Sansom obtained an equaliser.

Silva-Netto and Remedios were prominent in the Recreio defence, but with Rocha away much of the sting was missing from the attack. The right wing was forceful, but the left fell away after a promising start.

St. Joseph's held the advantage in the half-back line, but they failed to make the most of the opportunity thus offered. The forwards were well served and their approach work was good. They did not press the backs sufficiently hard to be effective in the shooting area.

Mr. Ferguson was the first light-weight and Mr. Beck the first heavy-weight to finish.

A HUGE DIVIDEND.

SIR WILLIAM MORRIS TO RECEIVE £200,000.

London, Mar. 29.

Sir William Morris, the well known motor manufacturer, is at last to receive a dividend of ten per cent, free of tax, amounting to £200,000.

Morris Motors Ltd. have a reserve fund of £2,000,000 of ordinary capital which he holds. The net profits of the company for the past year were £1,285,000, or roughly the same as the previous year.

Sir William Morris began his career in a small garage at Oxford before the war. His firm is now the largest British motor manufacturing concern.—British Wireless.

KEMMERER REPORT
PROPOSALS.

be used only for the redemption of coins in China by means of drafts as already mentioned.

Part II of the Fund, consisting of Chinese coins and metal for coinage purposes, will provide a supply of new currency as the need arises, or will take up the slack if the currency should become redundant. Thus Part II will constitute a buffer fund, regulating automatically the supply of currency in China to changing trade needs.

An excessive drain on Part I of the Fund will be checked automatically by a contraction of the currency in China, the currency redeemed going into Part II of the Fund where it will be locked up.

Administration of Fund.

The administration of the Fund and of the gold standard is to be entrusted to a Currency Department in the Ministry of Finance. An examination of the Fund may be made at any time by the three bankers' associations of Shanghai, by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce of Shanghai, or by the Central Bank.—Reuter.

Caustic Criticism.

Shanghai, Mar. 30.

The China Press, in an editorial this morning caustically criticising the Kemmerer report, stresses the "pathetic obituary notice" therein of the six financial commissions that predeceased Kemmerer's.

It says that the "project" is surprisingly similar to the methods utilised by the United States in the Philippines in 1905 and 1907. The China Press is frankly and entirely sceptical of a gold standard scheme, remarking that there is nothing substantial upon which the project can be erected. A mythical gold unit has been conjured up in the imagination of impractical theorists, and upon this has been built an imposing edifice of enormous potential seigniorage profits. "The report evidences faith and hope, but these will hardly produce parity in gold," continues the comment and adds that it is a dismal task to search for either inspiration or commercial clarity in this plethora of words.

One appears to be wandering in a wonderland with Alice and some financial mad-hatter. The report postulates nothing new and at the most certainly offers no remedy for the national bankruptcy that appears imminent.

Nanking's Opportunity.

The newspaper asks whether Nanking will remain serenely indifferent to the financial muddle that surely and swiftly is destroying commerce and confidence and adds that it is within the power of Nanking to re-establish firmly the national currency. No better use of the executive prerogative could be made than to impose immediately a duty on cargoes of silver being dumped from abroad in the overstocked market in China.

The editorial concludes that to-day Chinese bankers and merchants, menaced with destruction, are unanimous that action identical with that of America is imperatively necessary if China is to be saved from financial death.

The other morning papers do not comment on the report.—Reuter.

At the second annual general meeting of the Hongkong University Amateur Photographic Club on Thursday the following gentlemen were elected officials for the year 1930: President Dr. M. B. Osman; Chairman Mr. K. W. Khoo; Hon. Secretary, Mr. P. S. Lee; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. K. D. Ling; Committee members Mr. F. Y. Khoo, Mr. G. E. Yeoh, Mr. C. Y. Yeap, Mr. T. K. Men. A suggestion of forming a cine section was duly carried out. The cine section is open to associate members and the general public who are interested in it.

How many men, having decided to save say £100 a year for 20 years, die after having accumulated only £200 or £300?

By investing the £100 a year in Life Insurance the will would have been taken as the deed and at death the savings would have been anticipated.

BRITISH PREMIER ATTACKED.

INVITED TO END NAVAL CONFERENCE.

AN AMAZING LETTER.

New York, Mar. 29. Accustomed as the American public is to the abuse of Britain poured out in the Hearst Press, even it is amazed at the vituperative character of a letter to Mr. Ramsay MacDonald which is published on the front page of every paper of the group in the United States to-day.

In the letter the Prime Minister is invited to "close a conference which would be farcical if not so tragic and send the American delegation home."

The Prime Minister is asked whether he is not doing his utmost to help to create pacifist and inferior Navy sentiment in the United States.

"Are you not collaborating daily," it continues, "with half-caste American correspondents of international minded Metropolitan newspapers whose publishers wear the decorations of foreign Governments for disloyalty to their own?"

The letter adds, "Briefly, MacDonald, are you the friend you pretend to be, or the slyest, smoothest and trickiest diplomat that has come out of England since Arthur Balfour, in 1922, proceeded gently and painlessly to sink our American Navy, his eyes all the while 'full and running over' with tears of gratitude for our saving help in the Great War?"—Reuter's American Service.

Complete Deadlock.

London, Mar. 29. There were strong rumours in Conference circles this morning that the Anglo-French negotiations for the purpose of framing a Mediterranean security pact had come to a complete deadlock.

French circles are most pessimistic. Mr. Ramsay MacDonald went to Chequers to-night and will return to London late to-morrow.

No week-end visits have been arranged with the exception that the Italian delegate, Signor Grandi, is lunching at Chequers to-morrow.

British circles are most reluctant to comment on the rumours of the deadlock.—Reuter.

America Holds On.

Washington, Mar. 29. Leaders in the House of Representatives intend to withhold action on the Naval Appropriation Bill, involving the expenditure of over three hundred million dollars, for a further six weeks in the hope that the Naval Conference in London will reach an agreement in the meantime.—Reuter's American Service.

The Japanese Reply.

Tokyo, Mar. 29. It is authoritatively stated that instructions to the Naval delegation in London will most likely be decided at the Cabinet meeting on April 1.

Pending a final decision the contents of the reply are unknown, but it is generally believed that Japan will accept the proposed figures with certain reservations.

CONSTANT TREMORS IN JAPAN.

TWO THOUSAND 'QUAKES' IN SIX WEEKS.

Tokyo, Mar. 29. An official warning has been issued by the Central Meteorological Observatory to the inhabitants of the Ito district, famous for the hot spring at the Izu peninsula, forty miles south-west of Yokohama, where over 2,000 earthquake shocks have been felt since mid-February.

The local Police and town officials are taking precautions as many buildings have been seriously affected by the constant tremors.

Opinions of the leading seismologists are reported to be at variance, some asserting that there is no cause for alarm and others being apprehensive, although confident that the phenomenon is of a purely local nature.—Reuter.

tions which will be sufficient to satisfy all but the extreme diehards in Tokyo, and at the same time prevent a disruption of the Conference.—Reuter.

A Consultative Pact.

London, Mar. 29. Although no meeting between the chief delegates to the Naval Conference has been arranged before Monday, when the delegates will again meet, various points which the newspapers understand are related to the scope of Articles Eleven and Sixteen of the Covenant have been referred by the respective delegations to their experts for investigation and advice.

The main purpose of these investigations is, apparently, to discover whether it is possible to devise a formula which would provide France with a measure of additional security, which she desires as a prelude to the position of her naval tonnage, without involving Great Britain in additional commitments.

Other instruments besides the League Covenant are engaged in the examination by the experts. These include the Locarno Treaty and the Kellogg Pact and the experts are considering the general question, without having before them any specific consideration in the way of a Mediterranean Pact.

The British Government has always taken the view that no question of a Mediterranean Pact could be settled at a Conference where several interested Mediterranean Powers are not represented.

It is suggested that when the Plenary Session is held next Friday, the American delegation may take an opportunity of clarifying the United States' attitude towards a consultative pact, about which the Press at least seems in some doubt.

According to the Times, the Daily Herald and other journals, the position at the moment is that the American delegation would not consider participation in a consultative pact until after the European Powers had reached an agreement regarding the Mediterranean problem and until a Five Power treaty, embodying Naval reductions, had been signed.—British Wireless.

BRITAIN'S TREATY WITH EGYPT.

NEGOTIATIONS OPENING WITH PUBLIC CEREMONY.

AUGUST PROTOCOL.

London, Mar. 30.
Anglo-Egyptian treaty negotiations will be formally and publicly opened in the Locarno Room at the Foreign Office to-morrow morning when speeches will be made by the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Arthur Henderson, and the Egyptian Premier, Nahas Pasha.

After this session, it is probable that the negotiations will develop into an expert examination of the existing draft treaty.

That draft, embodying the proposals for a lasting and honourable settlement of the Anglo-Egyptian question, was drawn up in an agreement by Mr. Henderson and by Mahmoud Pasha, and published last August.

Mr. Henderson, who in a covering note described the proposals as representing the extreme limit to which he could recommend the British Government to go, undertook that if the proposals were ratified by the Egyptian Parliament, he would at once submit them to Parliament in London with a view to the conclusion and ratification of a treaty carrying them into effect.

The Egyptian Parliament recently elected with an overwhelming Wardist majority authorised Nahas Pasha to visit London with a view to the conclusion of a treaty on the lines laid down.—British Wireless.

SCISSORS ATTACK RECALLED.

ASSAILANT REPORTED TO BE INSANE.

A further week's remand was granted by Mr. Whyte Smith, at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, in the case of a Chinese who appeared before his Worship on a charge of maliciously attacking two women of Temple Street with a pair of scissors and causing them grievous bodily harm.

The defendant was placed under observation and this morning his Worship intimated that Dr. Cannon had informed him the defendant was suffering from epileptic insanity.

His Worship suggested that the defendant should be sent to the asylum, but ordered a remand for a week pending a certified report from the medical authorities of the Gaol.

KOWLOON THEFTS.

LADY ROBBED OF CLOCK AND SPOON.

According to a report made to the police on Saturday, someone entered the room of Mrs. F. N. Booth, at Airline House, Nathan Road, some time between 10 a.m. and noon and stole a silver clock valued at $50.

Mrs. Booth informed the police that the clock bore the monogram "M.N." and was taken from the mantelpiece. The door was closed but not locked.

Later in the day Mrs. Booth lost a silver spoon, valued $5, from the dining room.

In connexion with the theft of the clock, a man has been arrested by the police and will appear before the Magistrate in due course.

KILTED TROOPS IN HONGKONG.

HIGHLANDERS ARRIVE
THIS MORNING.

LATEST ADDITION TO THE
GARRISON FORCES.

MAGNIFICENT RECORD.

Hongkong now has a kilted Battalion amongst its garrison forces, the 2nd Battalion of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders having arrived here this morning from Tientsin aboard the s.s. Talamba. The disembarkation took place at Kowloon Wharf and the Battalion has moved into quarters at Sham-shuipo, where it will be stationed during its period of service in the Colony.

The commanding officer of the Battalion is Lieut.-Col. R. G. MacLaine, M.C., who joined the Argyll in 1902 and who served with the Egyptian Expeditionary Force during the Great War, being wounded.

History Recalled.

The Argyll and Sutherlands belong to the 93rd Highlanders, whose history goes back for more than 180 years, and which figured with great gallantry and distinction in the war between Britain and her American Colonies in 1814, in the Crimean War, in the Indian Mutiny and in the Great War.

The 2nd Battalion was transferred from Jamaica to North China last November, making the trip via the Panama Canal, this being the first occasion on which British troops had used that route. It has until recently had its headquarters at Tientsin, with detachments at Weihaiwei and Peking.

The Regiment's History.

The 93rd Sutherland Highlanders were raised in 1799 by Major General Wemyss of Wemyss, a nephew of the Earl of Sutherland. The enrolment of recruits was completed by a process of conscription, yet such was the spirit of the men that on the assembly of the Regiment there was not a single absentee. The Sutherland tartan was adopted for the Regiment.

The Regiment's first station was Inverness and for the first six years remained in Great Britain, embarking in 1805 for the Cape of Good Hope, where in 1806, it was engaged in its first action at the capture of Cape Town. The Regiment remained in garrison at the Cape until 1814, when it was sent to America, where war had broken out between Great Britain and her Colonies.

In an attack on New Orleans, which resulted in failure, 6 officers and 121 other ranks of the "93rd" were killed and 12 officers and 368 other ranks wounded. A hundred years were to pass before the Battalion was again to suffer losses comparable to those.

In 1815 the Regiment returned to England, but was in too weakened a condition, after the New Orleans expedition, to be sent to Flanders. From this year till the outbreak of the Crimean War in 1854 the "93rd" served mostly in the Colonies, and from 1823 to 1831 was stationed in the West Indies, being split up for a period in detachments in Antigua, St. Kitts, Montserrat, St. Lucia, Dominica and Barbados.

It is of interest that from 1822 to 1831 the 91st Highlanders, which were destined to be linked with the "93rd" in 1832 to form the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, were stationed in Jamaica.

"The Thin Red Line."

The "93rd" was despatched to the Crimea in 1854, where together with the Black Watch and 79th Cameron Highlanders they formed a Highland Brigade. The Brigade took part in all the principal actions against the Russians, but the "93rd" was alone engaged in the action at Balaklava, which gained for the Battalion the title of "The Thin Red Line" and the battle honour "Balaklava."

The successful defeat of a Russian cavalry charge by the musket fire of the "93rd," formed in line and unsupported, saved the British Base at Balaklava from imminent capture.

Indian Mutiny Service.

On the conclusion of peace in 1856 the Regiment returned to England, only to re-embark in 1857 for service in India on account of the Mutiny there. Soon after arrival in India they formed part of the force under Sir Colin Campbell, which relieved the Residency at Lucknow, and in that action six of the "93rd" gained the V.C.

In the following year the "93rd" was again in action at Lucknow

THE ITALIAN ART EXHIBITION.

BANQUET GIVEN TO MARK
GREAT SUCCESS.

BRITISH APPRECIATION

London, Mar. 30.
The Government last night gave a banquet to mark the brilliant success which attended the recently concluded Italian Art Exhibition which was visited in London by over half a million people.

Lord Parmoor, Lord President of the Council, expressed the deep gratitude of the Government and of the people of Great Britain, primarily to the Italian Government, and to all others who had made the Exhibition possible.

It had brought together the works of Italian Art both from private and public sources, chiefly from Italy, but also from most other parts of the world. The museums of France, Germany, Hungary, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, United States, and Canada had generously lent of their best. No fewer than 15 different countries had contributed to the Exhibition. The Italian Ambassador announced that his King and Government had conferred on Lady Chamberlain the Chairman of the Exhibition Committee, the Golden Italian Medal.—British Wireless.

ANOTHER KIDNAPPING CASE.

YOUNG CHILD NOT YET TRACED.

A Chinese appeared in the dock at the Central Magistracy this morning, charged with kidnapping a boy, aged five years, from Shaokwan, and after a statement had been made by the police, he was remanded in custody for a week.

The salient facts, as told to Mr. Lindell, the Magistrate, were that the defendant kidnapped the child one day, and sent him away to Amoy, where, it is alleged, he was sold. His present whereabouts were not known, but it was suggested by the police to his Worship that if the defendant succeeded in helping the father to find his son, his efforts might be taken into consideration at the next hearing.

His Worship intimated that he would certainly consider that, and ordered a remand accordingly.

and an additional V.C. was won there. The Regiment continued in active service till the end of the mutiny and was again called on in 1863 to take part in the Umbeyla campaign, its last campaign as the Sutherland Highlanders. In 1870 it returned to England and in 1882 was linked with the Argyllshire Highlanders, forming the 2nd Battalion of the new Regiment.

The "93rd" again saw active service in India in 1897, taking part in the Techi campaign, but from that year till the outbreak of the Great War the Battalion was not actively employed. Garrison duty in India and South Africa completed its foreign tour in 1909, and thereafter, till 1914, it was stationed in Scotland.

The Great War.

When War was declared in August 1914, the "93rd" was one of the first four Battalions to complete mobilization and land in France. It took part in all the actions from the Retreat from Mons to the advance to the Aisne, and was again engaged in the fighting round Ypres in the autumn and winter of 1914.

The Battalion suffered its first serious casualties at the Battle of Le Cateau on 26th August, to the extent of 11 officers and 440 other ranks killed, wounded, and missing.

In 1915 the "93rd" took part in the battle of Loos, suffering heavily, and in 1916 and 1917 was engaged in the hard fighting on the Somme, at Arras, and around Ypres, in which many instances of its fighting qualities and devotion to duty are recorded. Again in 1918 the Battalion took part in Flanders in the struggle to stem the German advance on the Channel ports and completed its active participation in the War in pursuit of the German forces.

Unique Experience.

When the Battalion had reformed after the process of demobilization, it was detailed for garrison duty at home, and, except for a period of service in Ireland for the maintenance of peace, it was stationed in the South of England until 1927, when on commencing a tour of service overseas it was moved to Jamaica.

After two years in Jamaica and Bermuda, the Battalion moved to North China, via the Panama Canal, Honolulu, and Shanghai. This was a unique experience and the first occasion on which British troops had passed through the Panama Canal.
